

MASTER'S THESIS WRITING OF THAI STUDENTS:
A CONTRASTIVE STUDY USING GENRE ANALYSIS

Jiraporn Phornprapha

Submitted to the faculty of the University Graduate School in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the degree
Master of Arts
in the Department of English,
Indiana University

December 2009

Accepted by the Faculty of Indiana University, in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the degree of Master of Arts.

Ulla Connor, Ph.D., Chair

Thomas Upton, Ph.D.

Master's Thesis
Committee

Aye Nu Duerksen, Ph.D.

Dedication

This thesis is dedicated for all my teachers who have been inspiring me throughout these years.

Acknowledgements

I would like to express my gratitude to those who have helped me throughout the writing process. First of all, I am indebted to my advisor, Dr. Ulla Connor, who has inspired me with her dedication to the field. I thank you for being a great advisor who has guided and assisted me throughout these times.

I also would like to thank all my thesis committee members. I am thankful for the help from Dr. Aye Nu Duerksen who has been a wonderful guidance throughout my years at IUPUI. Thank you for helping me proofread my thesis and your friendly discussion. I also would like to express my great appreciation to Dr. Thomas Upton who has been very helpful to me since my very first day at IUPUI. If it was not for him, I would not apply to the graduate school here and would not definitely have one of the most meaningful experiences of my life in the U.S. Thank once more to Dr. Connor for all your time, support, and energy that you put during this process, and for book loans.

I would like to extend my appreciation to IUPUI library and writing center staff who has helped me find necessary books, articles, and other materials and edited my writing. To IUPUI staff, Ms. King who always kindly responded to every question I had.

Furthermore, I would like to thank Ms. Pornsiri of Kasetsart University for your friendly advice and useful suggestions for collecting my data. Special thanks also go to my IUPUI friends who have supported me and given me helpful suggestions.

Last but not least, I am grateful for my family who has supported me and patiently listened to what I had to say throughout this process. Without your help and understanding, I would not have completed my thesis.